

EdConnect Australia trains and supports volunteers to work in local schools to provide a safety net for young people who might otherwise struggle to realise their potential - in school and life.

THE BENEFITS

SCHOOLS & STAFF

- Enable teachers to focus on delivering the curriculum
- Improve the profile and reputation of your school in the community
- Integrate a trained volunteer with minimal cost and disruption
- Provide one-on-one mentoring or classroom learning support for students
- Achieve a clear and quantifiable return on your investment

TEACHERS

- Provide one-on-one mentoring for students who may be falling behind academically, struggling with low confidence or self-esteem or having problems as a result of other factors at home and school
- Help raise the standard of literacy and numeracy, and enhance life skills among at-risk students
- Feel confident that our volunteers and mentors have all been screened, trained to the highest standards and understand their duty of care to young people – all before they start at the school
- Minimise disruption to your classes and delivery of the curriculum
- Hands-on help for classroom projects and special events

STUDENTS & PEERS

- Enable students who need additional assistance and attention to thrive with one-on-one mentoring or additional learning support
- Support – in academics and in life
- Improvement of grades and confidence
- Higher percentage of school participation and attendance
- Emotional and social encouragement and understanding
- Improvement in relationship with peers and fellow students
